Respite Program Initiated For Alzheimer Patient Families

Park Avenue Synagogue is one of three sites on the upper East Side at which an innovative program designed to aid Alzheimer patients and their families has been initiated.

As often as once a week, a homebound patient can be brought to the synagogue, or one of the other sites, where he or she can remain with trained volunteers for up to four hours, permitting family members free time, often not available to full-time care takers, to meet their own needs. It is hoped that by providing this service, the strain of full time care-giving will be reduced and family members will be able to continue to provide home care for their loved ones, rather than prematurely institutionalizing them.

This program is a project of the Brookdale Center on Aging of Hunter College and primary funding for this Respite Project is provided by Brookdale Foundation. Any individuals with primary responsibility for the care of Alzheimer patients, aged 60 years or older, may apply to the Brookdale Respite Program. A contribution of $5 per session is suggested, but not required.

Volunteers are a vital part of the program as they provide companionship and assistance to program participants, helping with arts and crafts projects, making music selections, supervising refreshments and talking to the patients. All volunteers are oriented and trained by the professional staff of the Brookdale Center on Aging's Training Division, and work under the guidance of the Program Coordinator.

For more information and to volunteer your services or enroll a loved one in the program, please call 481-4350 and ask for the Respite Program staff.

Religious School-Jewish Museum Explore Development Of Joint Educational Programs

Recognizing the almost unlimited opportunities for curriculum enrichment, the faculty of our Elementary School met with the members of the Department of Education of the Jewish Museum to explore the possibilities of developing joint academic programs.

Meeting at the Museum, which is located on Fifth Avenue at 92nd St., the faculty was informed of the many possibilities of linking their graded curriculum with specially prepared projects by the Department of Education.

Individual classes, over the years, have taken class trips to the Jewish Museum. During this school year, the Bet grade visited the "Origins of the Hebrew Alphabet" exhibit and the Hey grade visited the Felix Nussbaum exhibit, "Art and Exile: Felix Nussbaum (1904-1944)".

Kiddush To Honor Frances Berger

Following services on Saturday morning, June 29, the congregation is invited to a Kiddush in honor of Frances Berger on her retirement as the chairperson of the Sisterhood Kiddush Committee.

Mrs. Berger has served in this capacity for many years and the congregation has been the beneficiary of her efforts. A member of Sisterhood since she and her husband, Herman, joined the congregation in 1963, she has served as a vice-president, corresponding secretary, co-chair and chair of several of Sisterhood's annual luncheons, membership chair and raffle chairperson for the Sisterhood sponsored bazaars.

A gracious hostess, Mrs. Berger has served as chairperson of several Simhat Torah receptions, untold numbers of Shabbat kiddushim, as well as the fabled reception in honor of the then retiring Hazzan David J. Putterman, following the recital given in his honor by Jan Peerce both of blessed memory.

Tisha B'Av Service Saturday, July 27

From sundown July 27 to sundown July 28, Tisha B'Av — the ninth of Av — is observed by Jews worldwide as the day of remembrance of the many tragic events from the Jewish historical past.

At Park Avenue Synagogue, the service marking Tisha B'Av will take place in the Sanctuary on Saturday, July 27 at 9 p.m. Rabbi Harlan J. Wechsler will conduct this moving service, accompanied by Cantor David Lefkowitz and the Synagogue Choir.

The pathos and reflective mood of Tisha B'Av is clearly portrayed in the liturgical poetry recited during this service. These haunting dirges are called kinot. Their special kind of beauty is vividly brought to life through musical settings by the most distinguished synagogue composers of European Jewry, who reached deep into their souls and came up with some of the most heartfelt, soul-stirring a cappella Jewish music of their creative careers.

Congregants and their friends who are home at this time of the summer are encouraged to come and participate in this extraordinary service, when the lights in the Sanctuary are dimmed, candles burn and the events of the past are recalled through the reading of the Book of Lamentations, selections of appropriate poetry and the singing of liturgical music.

Post-Bitburg Thoughts

This past month we were witness to many momentous events coming in speed and profusion, leaving us a little reckless in their wake. The 40th anniversary of VE Day and the 10th anniversary of the end of the war in Viet Nam were all overshadowed by the now famous — or infamous — visit to Bitburg. Add to this, the exposure to Holocaust remembrances on television and our mood can aptly be described as mournful, or at best, one of disillusionment.

Now is a good time to take a hard look at these events and try to extrapolate their meanings and lessons for us. In each event there seems to be a thesis and antithesis, a balancing of the wrong and the right, a reason to doubt and a need to hope.

First, reflections about the Holocaust: the impact never lessens; the incredulity continues and will never abate. This is one event in human history which is at once unbelievable and sobering. It is the quintessence of the evil of which man is capable when Satanic forces are unleashed and the centuries of civilization and refinement which came before are as though they had never been.

It brings home the fact that anti-semitism is a disease which has plagued civilization and probably will never disappear completely. But we also have been heartened by the voices of those millions of Americans of all faiths and races who spoke out, who protested, whose hearts ached when they heard and saw the leader of the free world say things which they thought unwise, and do some things which offended them to the depths of their beings. We are not ready to repeat the apathy and the indifference of which the world was guilty during World War II.

They also have seen the futility and tragedy of wars between peoples and again, millions of people are bending their every effort to build a world in which peace will be enshrined as the greatest good.

We have learned too that memory is crucial in human affairs. Neither the evil nor the good

Summer Talmud Study
Arranged For College Students

In response to the initiative of college students affiliated with Park Avenue Synagogue, an opportunity has been arranged to study Talmud with Rabbi Wechsler this summer. Four sessions have been planned: July 9, July 23, August 6, and August 20. These sessions can also afford the opportunity to our college students to renew old acquaintanceships and make new friends.

During these four sessions the tenth chapter of the Tractate Pesahim will be explored in depth. This is the chapter which teaches the details and background of the Passover seder. It is not necessary to have either a background in Hebrew or Talmud to join the class. The study sessions will be conducted in English, using both Hebrew and English texts, so that everyone will be able to understand the meaning of the passages explored.

Class begins at 8 p.m. Spread the word among your fellow college students.

should ever be forgotten.

But for Jews there is another lesson here. We dare never equate Judaism with the fight against anti-semitism but rather with the fight for Judaism, for Jewish pride, for Jewish knowledge, for Jewish loyalty, for Jewish laughter and music, for Jewish learning and Jewish lore. We must teach our children what Judaism is, not merely that it is something to defend. That is the purpose of our synagogue and we pledge ourselves to the fulfillment of this goal.

— Judah Nadich

Congregants Bid Good-Bye To High School Principal

A Good-Bye Party — a gala reception, buffet and entertainment - will take place on Tuesday, June 11, from 6 - 10 p.m. for Peter Geffen, Principal of the High School, who has resigned his post effective August 31, 1985 in order to pursue other interests in Jewish education.

The congregation is cordially invited to share in the festivities. However, it should be noted that an RSVP by June 3 to the Synagogue Office is a MUST to properly facilitate the committee's planning for the evening.

During the coming year, Rabbi Harlan J. Wechsler will serve as interim director of the High School, assisted by veteran teacher Larry Zelnick, who will serve as assistant director. A new principal will be appointed for the 1986-1987 school year.

Peter Geffen joined the staff of Park Avenue Synagogue in 1967 when Rabbi Joseph Wernik, then Principal of the Religious School, hired him to develop a program for the community's teenagers.

With the support and encouragement of Park Avenue Synagogue, he created a completely original student-centered program for teenagers, grounded in the principles of volunteerism and open communication between teacher and student.

Within two years of his joining the staff, Peter originated the High School's unique summer travel program which, over the years, has taken more than 200 teenagers to Jewish communities throughout Europe, North Africa, the USSR, Iran and Israel. In 1981, he initiated the Helpen-Wimpfheimer Fellowship (named in the honor of Lillian Helpen and Vicki Wimpfheimer, the then retiring co-chairpersons of the School Board) which has been awarded thus far to 11 college students, alumni of the High School, to train them for staff positions with the Summer Program.

Peter was born and raised in Forest Hills, New York. A graduate of Forest Hills High School and the Queens Hebrew High School, he continued his education at the Jewish Theological Seminary of America and at Queens College where he received his BA degree in History. He holds a Masters degree in Religious Education from NYU and is currently a PhD candidate there. As part of his doctoral studies, he completed a five year certificate program in Psychotherapy and Counseling at the Alfred Adler Institute.

A committed activist, Peter spent the summers of 1965 and 1966 as an assistant to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. in charge of voter registration in Orangeburg, South Carolina. As Principal of the High School, he has conducted training seminars at conferences throughout the country and has served on numerous educational advisory committees. He was a founder of the New York Havurah and Berira and has served as the president for the past three years of the board of the co-op in which he and his wife, Susie Kessler, and two sons, Jonah, age 6, and Daniel, age 4, live.

Volunteers Sought For Interesting Project

Volunteers are sought from the Park Avenue Synagogue community who would be able to serve on a Planning Committee this coming year to help plan, and then to attend, a conference sponsored by the New York Board of Rabbis on "Israel Opportunities and Aliyah". The all-day conference would take place in the New York metropolitan area sometime in 1986.

For more information or to volunteer, please contact Rabbi Nadich at the synagogue during business hours.

Burden Center Seeks Volunteers

The Burden Center for the Aging, located at 445 East 85th St., seeks volunteers to help homebound senior citizens.

Volunteers visit the elderly of our community, occasionally shop for them and do a variety of follow-up tasks.

The Center gives volunteers training and attempts to match clients and volunteers so that comfortable, warm relationships can develop.

Those interested in becoming involved in this extremely necessary and gratifying work should telephone the Burden Center for the Aging at 879-7400.

We Take Pride In:

Mrs. Vivian Finkel, teacher in our Religious School and Sherr Institute, who has received the "Distinguished Teacher Award" from the Board of Jewish Education of Greater New York.

Assistant Cantor Mark Kula, who was awarded the Rose S. Rovine Award in Liturgical Music at Commencement Exercises of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America. This award is given for the outstanding essay in the field of Jewish liturgical music.

Cantor David Lefkowitz and Assistant Cantor Mark Kula, who participated in the 38th annual convention of the Cantors Assembly. Cantor Lefkowitz was the soloist in a program presented to the Assembly which traced the development of the sounds of the synagogue from biblical cantillations through the medieval period to modern times. This program is in the process of being recorded.

Roberta Milston, daughter of Martin and Mendelle Milston, who, with two other students, did research on a Torah scroll in the Oberlin College Library and was instrumental in bringing it to a New York scribe for proper identification and restoration.

Nathan Rapoport, whose sculpture entitled "Liberation" was unveiled and dedicated at Liberty State Park facing the Statue of Liberty. Mr. Rapoport is the creator of the sculptures affixed to the facade of our new school building.
